I don't understand discrimination. To me, it's evil. How can you not think that all people are the same? It doesn't matter what kind of discrimination it is, it's all terrible. People who discriminate because of other people's race, sex or age should be named and shamed. I think there should be really strong laws against all forms of discrimination. Racism is horrible. What difference does it make what colour your skin is? The thing that surprises me is that even in the most cosmopolitan cities, racism is everywhere. Sexual discrimination is also stupid. Sexist people have sisters, mothers, wives, daughters; but they still treat women as being less able. I wonder if we'll ever live in a world where we're all equal.

- Now return to your original partner and share and talk about what you found out. Change partners often.
- Make mini-presentations to other groups on your findings.

HOMEWORK

1. VOCABULARY EXTENSION: Choose several of the words from the text. Use a dictionary or Google's search field (or another search engine) to build up more associations / collocations of each word.

2. INTERNET INFO: Search the Internet and find more information about discrimination. Talk about what you discover with your partner(s) in the next lesson.

3. MAGAZINE ARTICLE: Write a magazine article about discrimination. Read what you wrote to your classmates in the next lesson. Give each other feedback on your articles.

4. DISCRIMINATION POSTER Make a poster about discrimination. Show it to your classmates in the next lesson. Give each other feedback on your posters.

5. MY DISCRIMINATION LESSON: Make your own English lesson on discrimination. Make sure there is a good mix of things to do. Find some good online activities. Teach the class / another group when you have finished.

6. ONLINE SHARING: Use your blog, wiki, Facebook page, MySpace page, Twitter stream, Del-icio-us / StumbleUpon account, or any other social media tool to get opinions on discrimination. Share your findings with the class.
